Detailed Office Action

Status of the Claims

Acknowledgement is hereby made of receipt and entry of the communication filed 16 August, 2005. Newly submitted claims 19-24 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: claims 19-24 are directed toward a methodology that employs significantly different steps (e.g., diluting said polypeptide in a salt solution) from that of the currently claimed invention (e.g., assembling CA in increasing salt concentration). Since each invention employs materially different assay steps, separate searches will be required that are not coextensive in scope. Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 19-24 are withdrawn from further consideration as being directed towards a nonelected invention (refer to 37 C.F.R. § 1.142(b) and M.P.E.P. § 821.03). Claims 1, 4, 7, 8, 11, and 12 are currently under examination.

Claim Objection

Claims 1, 4, 7, 8, 11, and 12 are objected to because of the following informalities: the claims recite an abbreviation (e.g., HIV-1) without first providing a definition or explanation of said term. Appropriate amendment of the claim language is required (i.e., "a human immunodeficiency virus type 1 (HIV-1) capsid protein (CA)").

35 U.S.C. § 112, Second Paragraph

Claims 1, 4, 7, 8, 11, and 12 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C.

§ 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Two separate requirements are set forth under this statute: (1) the claims must set forth the subject matter that applicants regard as their invention; and (2) the claims must particularly point out and distinctly define the metes and bounds of the subject matter that will be protected by the patent grant.

The claims have been amended to recite a triggering process that encompasses "rapidly increasing" the salt concentration. However, this term is vague and indefinite since it is a relative term. The precise parameters of the assay are not readily manifest. For instance, what constitutes a rapid increase in salt concentration? If one skilled in the art goes from 0.1 M to 1.0 M would this be considered a rapid increase? What if the skilled artisan goes from 1.0 M to 1.8 M? Would this be considered a rapid increase? Moreover, what "salts" are to be employed in the assay? As previously set forth, perusal of the disclosure reveals an HIV-1 in vitro capsid assembly system wherein immature HIV-1 capsids (e.g., conical or spherical) were induced by the addition of salt (e.g., a final concentration of 1 M NaCl) to a purified preparation of the CA protein. Appropriate amendment of the claim language is required. Applicant's representative is invited to contact the examiner to discuss suggested allowable revisions to the claim language.

35 U.S.C. § 112, First Paragraph

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. § 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The previous rejection of claims 1, 4, 7, 8, 11, and 12 under 35 U.S.C. § 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention, is hereby withdrawn in response to applicant's amendment.

The previous rejection of claims 1, 4, 7, 8, 11, and 12 under 35 U.S.C. § 112, first paragraph, because the specification does not reasonably enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims, is hereby withdrawn in response to applicant's amendment.

35 U.S.C. § 103(a)

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Subject matter developed by another person, which qualifies as prior art only under subsection (f) or (g) of section 102 of this title, shall not preclude patentability under this section where the subject matter and the claimed invention were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.

The previous rejection of claims 1, 4, 11, and 12 under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gross et al. (1997) in view of Trono et al. (1989), is hereby withdrawn in response to applicant's amendment.

The previous rejection of claims 7 and 8 under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gross et al. (1997) in view of Trono et al. (1989), and further in view of Vlasuk et al. (1989), is hereby withdrawn in response to applicant's amendment.

Finality of Office Action

Applicant's amendment necessitated any and all new grounds of rejection. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See M.P.E.P. § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a). A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE TO THIS FINAL ACTION IS SET TO EXPIRE THREE MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS ACTION. IN THE EVENT A FIRST RESPONSE IS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE MAILING DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION AND THE ADVISORY ACTION IS NOT MAILED UNTIL AFTER THE END OF THE THREE-MONTH SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD, THEN THE SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD WILL EXPIRE ON THE DATE THE ADVISORY ACTION IS MAILED, AND ANY EXTENSION FEE PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a) WILL BE CALCULATED FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THE ADVISORY ACTION. IN NO EVENT WILL THE STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE EXPIRE LATER THAN SIX MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION.
